Re: E-Safety Bulletin

Dear Parents,

Welcome to the final e-safety bulletin of this academic year. We have included two links for you to explore. The first addresses the issue of the inappropriate 'selfie'. This is a live issue for all schools and one that we have had to address with our pupils here at Upton Hall. The second link is a collaborative piece of work from CEOP and The Parent Zone that gives some really useful advice around building online resilience in young people.

The e-safety team look forward to continuing to work with you next year as we seek to educate and protect the pupils at Upton Hall.

With best wishes for a peaceful, enjoyable and safe summer holiday.
