

Attention! Readers of The Times & The Sunday Times, your assistance is needed!

“Books for Schools” - From January to November 2009 the Times Newspaper is running a scheme for schools to collect tokens which can be exchanged for a limited range of fiction books. Tokens will appear every day in The Times and The Sunday Times – around 65 – 85 tokens are needed per book.

The books in the scheme are of good quality and would appeal to pupils in Years 7-9. Any extra copies would be a useful addition to the School Library. Further details about the scheme can be found by visiting www.freebooksforschools.co.uk.

If anyone is a regular reader of The Times & The Sunday Times then your assistance in the collection of these tokens would be appreciated as it will enable us to enrich the collection of books in our School Library. A collection box is available in Reception.
