Monday 15th March: Sunday Gospel: John 3: 14-21

Jesus said to Nicodemus:

'The Son of Man must be lifted up as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him.

Yes, God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.

On these grounds is sentence pronounced: that though the light has come into the world men have shown they prefer darkness to the light because their deeds were evil. And indeed, everybody who does wrong hates the light and avoids it, for fear his actions should be exposed; but the man who lives by the truth comes out into the light, so that it may be plainly seen that what he does is done in God.'

Nicodemus is an influential man. He has something to lose by coming to Jesus, the man who overturned the tables in the Temple, a man who brings miracles and causes conflict wherever he goes. Not yet ready to risk coming to see Jesus in the light of day, Nicodemus instead comes at night.

Jesus desires friendship with us, yet this will have consequences.

Is there anything you'd rather hide? What would happen if this came to light?

Talk to Jesus about this.

Monday 15th March

Lord, I offer you this Lent, all the generosity I have. I give you each day, every decision and challenge I meet.

Generosily

Help me during Lent to choose the path of love and to know and trust that you are by my side every step of the way. Amen.

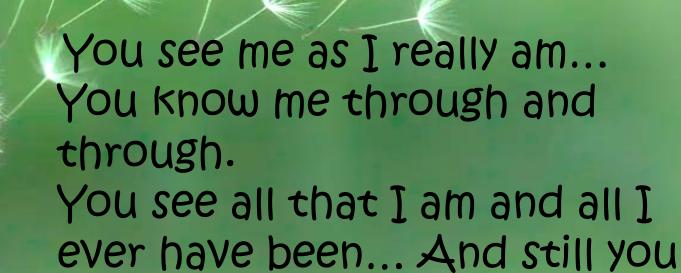

Lord, I come as myself.

Just as I am this moment.

I bring my feelings,

my fears, my joys,

my sadness's.

love me. Thanks!

There is no love without
forgiveness,
and there
is no forgiveness without love.

Is there anyone you need forgiveness for or maybe someone has wronged you?

How do you feel about these quotes and situations?

Ask God to help you.

St. Pope John Paul II forgave the man, Mehmet Ali Agca who shot him in 1981. He said, 'Pray for my brother, whom I have sincerely forgiven.' He later visited him in prison

March 19th

Feast of St Joseph

A man who was known not for his words but for his ACTIONS.

Lord, I pray for gifts and talents that will help me to help others.

As I pray for these gifts I know too, that I will need to work hard to develop them;

- to become more patient,
- to grow in wisdom,
- to be faithful in friendship.

I pray Lord that I may be a person of kind action like St. Joseph. Amen.

EXAMEN

Be silent and place yourself in God's loving presence.

Take a moment to look back over your week.

Think about the good things that have happened and give thanks.

What have the challenges been?

In the quiet of your heart, tell God about your experiences this week.

Ask the Lord to guide you in all you do.
